

Join the NYCAVMA & David Winston for an Ethno-botanical Adventure at Menla Mountain!

May 3rd - 6th 2018 the NYCAVMA proudly is hosting world renowned herbalist, David Winston, for a four day botanical delight. Herb Walks on this amazing mountain will be interspersed with Lectures on Herbal pain relief, Lyme disease, Adaptogens, Autoimmune disease and Allergies with a Summary and comparison of Organ System Remedies.

David will be lecturing from the afternoon on May 3rd to 1 PM on May 6th. Starting in the morning of May 3rd, Cindy Lankenau, DVM will cover basic energetics of western herbs for those who need a refresher on Western Botanical Medicine and on how to translate human herbal material into veterinary use.

Registration is now open at www.nycavma.org. Checks for the seminar should be made payable to Cynthia Lankenau & mailed to NYCAVMA c/o Cindy Lankenau 9002 Sunset Drive, Colden, NY 14033. Once payment is received you will be sent a link for housing at Menla Mountain.

